CRIMES IN ST. LOUIS ARE DOUBLED WHEN VICE ZONE IS SHUT

(Telegram from St. Louis to the Denver Post of Wednesday, April 1st.)
St. Louis, April 1.—Crimes against women have increased almost 100 per cent in St. Louis since the board of police commissioners a month ago abolished the segregated vice quarter.

Since the resorts on Lucas avenue were closed, complaints have been coming in from all parts of the city that the former limits of the segregated quarter are invading the residential and business parts of town.

Police investigation has disclosed that many women are now active in manufacturing and massage parlors. Adv.

BATTLE OVER LAND COMPANY SHIFTS TO SANTA FE

Demurrer Checks Consideration of Quo Warranto Petition. Garfield in Capital to Appear.

Scene of the legal battle for the control of the Northwestern Colonization and Improvement company of Chihuahua, Mexico shifted today from the city to Santa Fe. Yesterday in the district court, when hearing an petition to show cause why quo warranto proceedings should not be instituted was called, counsel for the Huller group filed a demurrer to the petition. Argument was made by attorney representing the company, James B. Garfield, former secretary of the interior, who is leading the fight for what is known as the Garfield group, took part.

Today Mr. Garfield and D. J. Cable, associated with him in the battle for the company's control are in Santa Fe, preparing to appear at the hearing before Judge William H. Pope in the United States district court Monday.

In filing the demurrer yesterday, Steenhan & Wright, counsel for Temke and Lindauer, contend that the action is uncertain and indefinite in object. They held that if it is a question as to title to office between sets of directors it should have been brought in the name of the individuals constituting one set, and if its purpose is to prevent a corporation here yesterday.

A third action in the case is pending in Mexico. Before the court of salia the Garfield group started suit to set aside foreclosure sale of land owned by the company at home.

In filing the demurrer yesterday, Steenhan & Wright, counsel for Temke and Lindauer, contend that the action is uncertain and indefinite in object.

They held that if it is a question as to title to office between sets of directors it should have been brought in the name of the individuals constituting one set, and if its purpose is to prevent a corporation from acting without legal authority, it should have been brought in the name of the state and by the attorney general.

District Attorney Manuel U. Vigil, who is the resident agent of the company here and a director in the Garfield group, took part in the proceedings before Judge Raynolds. His law firm, Vigil & Jamison, are of counsel for the Garfield party.
